SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

GATHERING WORDS

As we begin the day, O God, you brought us from darkness to light.
At the end of today you will lead us from busyness into stillness.
As we gather be our strength today.
Be our help and help all who carry heavy loads today.
Amen.

GOSPEL READING

Luke 9:57-62

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

REFLECTION

UNISON PRAYER

You have taught us, O Christ, to love the world.
You have shown us the light that is within us and within all things.
May we learn to love you more, and in loving you more learn to love the earth and all its people more, for you are the light of all life.
May our gay and lesbian brothers and sisters experience your love and our love.
Amen.
