BY WALKING”
YEAR-LONG WORSHIP SERIES

Where + is indicated, standing or sitting, we praise God.
You are invited to read aloud the bold text.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

We Gather to Worship

CENTERING

Rev. Nate Melcher

PRELUDE

Langsam from Five Pieces in Folk Style
Laura Sewell, cellist Robert Schumann

CHORAL INTROIT

Summer Choir
Jon Lahann, conductor

ENTRY INTO CELEBRATION

Kristin Zinsmaster

O God, we trust in your power, even as it is often found in weakness;

O God, we trust in your wisdom, even as it is expressed in apparent foolishness;

O God, we trust in your wholeness, even as it comes to us amid brokenness.

We come to worship you. Touch us this day, O Lord, that we might become your people, your body, your children, your church. For this body — this church — does not trust its own abilities, knowledge, or skills, but only you. In Jesus Christ.
Amen.

+ HYMN NO. 140

Great is Thy Faithfulness

+ PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we see your example, of how you washed your disciples’ feet, and we are driven to confession. We are ashamed at how we clamor for attention, at how we push and shove our way forward in this world. We long to be noticed. We long to be important. We long to be served by those around us. But you ...you came to serve, to humble yourself, to give yourself away.
You came to us, that we might have life. Thank you, Lord. Amen.

ANTHEM

Cantique de Jean Racine
Gabriel Fauré

O Redeemer divine, our sole hope of salvation, Eternal light of the earth and the sky,
We kneel in adoration, o Savior, turn on us Thy loving eye.

Send down on us the fire of Thy grace all-consuming, whose wondrous might dispersed the powers of hell,
And rouse our slumbering souls with radiance all-illuminating, that they may waken
Thy mercy to tell.

O Christ bestow Thy blessing on us, we implore Thee, who here are gathered on penitent knee.

Accept the hymns we chant to Thine eternal glory and these Thy gifts we return unto Thee.

WELCOME

+ BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

Today's sanctuary flowers are given by Gail and Del Hansen in honor their daughter Evelyn's 11th birthday.

This morning's cellist, Laura Sewell, is the Co-Director of the International Cello Institute, a three-week program for serious young cellists currently in session at St. Olaf College. Three of the Institute's distinguished faculty members are being presented in solo recitals in the Art Gallery this month on July 18, 25, and 31, at 7:30pm. Please see the announcement page for ticket prices and contact information.

In addition, one of ICI's talented student cellists will be a guest musician at next Sunday's worship service on July 23.

We Welcome You!

Welcome! If you're a guest, know that we're glad you're here, and that we'd love to get to know you better. Please leave your contact information in the Welcome Pads found in each pew. Hennepin Avenue United Methodist Church has a place for you. If this is your first visit, welcome. If you are returning, welcome back!

Welcome Bags for guests are available at the front of the Sanctuary.

Tours begin at the front of the Sanctuary after the 10am service.

Nursery for infants – age 3 is available in the Longfellow Room on the main floor in Carlson Hall. Ask any usher for directions.

Coffee is available each Sunday in Carlson Hall. Our thanks to Jim Cone of Coffee and Tea, Ltd. for supplying our Sunday coffee.

We are a Caring Community

Pastoral Care: Please notify the church office if you, a family member or any other church member are experiencing illness, hospitalization, or are in need of pastoral care. Please call 612-871-5303 and ask for Pastoral Care, ext. 771 or email PastoralCare@haumc.org.

Congregational Joys and Concerns are posted each week in the Pastoral Care area of the kiosk in Carlson Hall. Cards for members in need of cheer are available to sign at the reception desk.
