Sabbath Beginnings

8:00 AM

Sanctuary Alcove

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written
for our learning:
Grant us to hear them,
read, mark,
learn, and inwardly digest them.

Book of Common Prayer

Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever.
Amen

Gathering Words

Eat this bread, drink this cup,

Come to me and never be hungry.

Eat this bread, drink this cup,

Trust in me and you shall not thirst.

Scripture Reading Jeremiah 31:31-34 (NRSV)

31 The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. 32 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband,[a] says the Lord. 33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 34 No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Unison Prayer

We live in difficult times, O God. It is easy to feel engulfed in what can feel like darkness though it is light.

But in generations past many have lived in deep darkness. They have made it through because they had hope in your word that you would never leave them alone, that you would be their light. That is your promise to us as well.

May we know that it is the light of your love that surrounds us these days, a light that guides us on our way as we seek to follow you. Amen

Parting Word

I wait for you, O God my soul waits.

and in your word I hope.

My soul waits for you, O God,

more than they who watch for the morning
