CALL TO WORSHIP

Mark Christopher

Today is a day that is held in tension.

We are surrounded by the past yet looking toward the future.

A past that reminds us of the blessings and presence of God with us in joys as well as in sorrow.

And a future filled with promises.

A future when death and mourning and crying and pain will be no more.

And God proclaims, "See, I am making all things new."

Today we worship the one who was, is and is to come.

Let us worship in word, song and service.

—Based on Revelation 21:1-6a

+ PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, on this day devoted to the living memory of the martyrs of the church and to the celebration of the witness of loved ones and friends, we confess that we have mixed feelings.

Recalling the faithfulness and courage of Christian men and women who risked, and often sacrificed, their very lives in your Son's service both inspires us and makes us feel wistful. We know we do not measure up to them, but we feel that we should -- and that we might have, except for bad breaks or the interference of others.

Notes:

Most patient God, help us put an end to this self-deception. Help us to forget what we might have been, what we might have done.

Remind us that even the most conspicuous martyrs of the church, even the bravest saints we have known and loved, were ordinary people, subject to the same mixed feelings about their own worth and potential. Then help us concentrate on the present and the future: on the things we might yet do, the persons we might yet be, in Christ's service, beginning today. Amen.

We Welcome You!

We're glad you're here, and we'd love to get to know you better. Please leave your contact information in the Welcome Pads found in each pew. If this is your first visit, welcome. If you are returning, welcome back!

Pick up your welcome bag as you leave.

Tour our beautiful building. Meet at the front of the Sanctuary following worship.

Grab a cup of coffee in Carlson Hall. Our thanks to Jim Cone of Coffee and Tea, Ltd.—our coffee supplier.

We love your children. Nursery care for infants – age 3 is available in Longfellow Room on the main floor in Carlson Hall. Ask an usher for directions.

Missional Parking at Hennepin Church

To be an inviting congregation and welcome people on our campus, we need to continue being missional about how we park at Hennepin. Please prioritize the church parking lot for our new guests, people with mobility issues, and families with infants and young children. We ask all able-bodied members/longtime guests to please park in the Architectural Alliance lot, use street parking, or use the underground Walker ramp (paid vouchers available at Reception).

Communion Ware

Our new communion ware was created by artist Colleen Kwong whose work seeks to proclaim, "The Spirit of Creation celebrates the awareness of God already present."

Colleen Kwong is an artist and ordained minister who brings her unique education and experience to the ceremonial pottery, liturgical artwork, and workshops that she provides to the Midwest spiritual community, and beyond.

Colleen is currently serving as pastor of Hope United Church of Christ in Cochrane, Wisconsin and has served as Artist in Residence in a variety of settings. She is a Graduate of Cornell College and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.
