SONG

Now the Green Blade Rises

1. Now the green blade ris - es from the bur - ied grain,
2. In the grave they laid him, love by ha - tred slain,
3. Forth he came at East - er, like the ris - en grain,
4. When our hearts are win - try, griev - ing, or in pain,

Wheat that in dark earth man - y days has lain;
Think - ing that he would nev - er wake a - gain,
He that for three days in the grave had lain;
Your touch can call us back to life a - gain,

Love lives a - gain, that with the dead has been;
Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps un - seen;
Raised from the dead, my liv - ing Lord is seen;
Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been;

Love is come a - gain like wheat a - ris - ing green.

Eight Points of Progressive Christianity

(as articulated by The Center for Progressive Christianity, Cambridge, MA www.tpcpc.com)

By calling ourselves progressive, we mean we are Christians who:

1. Proclaim Jesus Christ as our Gate to the realm of God;
2. Recognize the faithfulness of other people who have other names for the gateway to God's realm;
3. Understand our sharing of bread and wine in Jesus' name to be representation of God's feast for all peoples
4. Invite all sorts of conditions of people to join in our worship and in our common life as full partners, including, but not limited to:
 - believers and agnostics
 - conventional Christians and questioning skeptics,
 - homosexuals and heterosexuals,
 - females and males,
 - the despairing and the hopeful,
 - those of all races and cultures, and
 - those of all classes and abilities without imposing on them the necessity of becoming like us;
5. Think that the way we treat one another and other people is more important than the way we express our beliefs;
6. Find more grace in the search for meaning than in absolute certainty, in the questions than in the answers;
7. See ourselves as a spiritual community in which we discover the resources required for our work in the world:
 - striving for justice and peace among all people, and
 - bringing hope to those Jesus called the least of his sisters and brothers.
8. Recognize that our faith entails costly discipleship, renunciation of privilege, and conscientious resistance to evil-as has always been the tradition of the church.

GATHERING PRAYERS AND BLESSING OF CREATION

Shepherd Me, O God

Text: Psalm 23
Tune: Marty Haugen © 1986, GIA Publications, Inc. Used with permission under OneLicense.net A-704046.

Loving God, you call us this day to life. Open our hearts to your voice that encourages and inspires. Open our hands to the Breath of your presence. Help us to hear one another's stories so we might be changed and transformed into a community of justice and love, of compassion and hope. We pray in the Way of Jesus, amen.

THE SCRIPTURE

Matthew 16:21-23; John 12:23-26

SONG

Lean On Me

Sometimes in our lives we all have pain
We all have sorrow
But if we are wise
We know that there's always tomorrow

Lean on me, when you're not strong
And I'll be your friend
I'll help you carry on
For it won't be long
'Til I'm gonna need
Somebody to lean on

Please swallow your pride
If I have things you need to borrow
For no one can fill those of your needs
That you won't let show

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

God to enfold us. Christ to be our companion. The Spirit to inspire us to greater and kinder living. Today. Tomorrow. Always. Amen
