Eight Points of Progressive Christianity

(as articulated by The Center for Progressive Christianity, Cambridge, MA www.tpcpc.com)

By calling ourselves progressive, we mean we are Christians who:

1. Proclaim Jesus Christ as our Gate to the realm of God;
2. Recognize the faithfulness of other people who have other names for the gateway to God's realm;
3. Understand our sharing of bread and wine in Jesus' name to be representation of God's feast for all peoples
4. Invite all sorts of conditions of people to join in our worship and in our common life as full partners, including, but not limited to:
 - believers and agnostics
 - conventional Christians and questioning skeptics,
 - homosexuals and heterosexuals,
 - females and males,
 - the despairing and the hopeful,
 - those of all races and cultures, and
 - those of all classes and abilities without imposing on them the necessity of becoming like us;
5. Think that the way we treat one another and other people is more important than the way we express our beliefs;
6. Find more grace in the search for meaning than in absolute certainty, in the questions than in the answers;
7. See ourselves as a spiritual community in which we discover the resources required for our work in the world:
 - striving for justice and peace among all people, and
 - bringing hope to those Jesus called the least of his sisters and brothers.
8. Recognize that our faith entails costly discipleship, renunciation of privilege, and conscientious resistance to evil-as has always been the tradition of the church.

See in this space our fears and our dream-ings,
 We have been sung through-out all of his - t'ry,
 Here you shall call your sons and your daugh - teers,
 here in this place the new light is shin - ing,

Brought here to you in the light of this
 Called to be light to the whole hu - man
 Call us a - new to be salt for the
 Now is the King - dom, now is the

 Gath - er us in and hold us for ev - er,

Gath - er us in— the blind and the lame;
 Gath - er us in— the proud and the strong;
 Give us to eat the bread that is you;
 Gath - er us in and make us your own;

Call to us now, and we shall a - wak - en,
 Give us a heart, so meek and so low - ly,
 Nour - ish us well, and teach us to fash - ion
 Gath - er us in— all peo - ples to - goth - er,

We shall a - rise at the sound of our name.
 Give us the cour-age to en - ter the song.
 Lives that are ho - ly and hearts that are true.
 Fire of love in our flesh and our bone.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Heaven is intertwined with earth.
 We have taken divine life into ours and we can say:
 We rise up today clothed in the strength of Christ.
 We go from this table freed to weave Christ's patterns.
 We shall not fear
 We go loved to serve Christ's weak ones
 We shall not be overwhelmed.
 We shall not be alone,

May the peace of Christ go with us wherever we may travel.
 May we be guided through the wilderness and protected from the storm.
 May God bring us home rejoicing at the wonders we have been shown.
 May we brought home rejoicing once again. AMEN
