

Community Conversations:

Understanding & Addressing Implicit Bias

February 25, 6:30pm at Episcopal Church in MN

1101 W. Broadway Ave, Minneapolis

Implicit bias is used to describe times when we have attitudes towards people or associate stereotypes with them without our conscious knowledge. Come and learn how you can understand your implicit biases and ways to address them. This conversation will be led by Dr. Talalya L. Tolefree and Mr. Patrick Seka. RSVP to info@rjca-inc.org. $10 donation requested.

Adulthood 101: What to Say When You Don't Know What to Say

March 3, 1pm in the Longfellow Room

When tragedy strikes, we're often without words, so we're too nervous to reach out. Or in desperation to say something, we say anything, including words that seem helpful but aren't. In this pivotal workshop, learn ways to be a trusted, listening lifeline to a friend in crisis. Get the skills you need to be ready for bad news. RSVPs are helpful but not necessary. RSVP to Rev. Nate Melcher at nate@haumc.org.

The Ebony, Ivory & Spruce Trio:

Pictures in Music

March 3, 3pm in the Art Gallery

Music @ Hennepin welcomes The Ebony Ivory and Spruce Trio, a true Twin Cities gem, presenting great music reimagined with a new intimate sound. Classical, jazz, and popular music are interwoven with stories and humor. Purchase tickets at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/pictures-in-music-tickets-54416608541>. Tickets: $20.

Minnesota FoodShare Drive

March 3-31, East Entry

Our 2019 Minnesota FoodShare Challenge with the Blaisdell YMCA is to get our leaders into the water! Bring your filled bag with groceries back to Hennepin Avenue UMC between March 3-31. Our pastors will jump into the YMCA pool at the following food donation benchmarks: 2,000 lbs. for Pastor Nate, 2,500 lbs. for Pastor Frenchie, and 3,000 for Pastor Judy! All items go to Groveland Food Shelf. Be a wellspring of hope for families in need of healthy food!

Shadow & Reflection:

The Paintings of Thrace Soryn

March 6-April 21, Carlson Hall

The Fine Arts Team is presenting a Lenten exhibit of works by local painter Thrace Soryn. Deeply reflective and contemplative, the exhibit can serve as an opportunity to practice "listening" to what a particular painting may have to say, as well as for the soul's reply. Meet the artist at the opening reception on Friday, March 8, from 6-8pm in Carlson Hall.

Ash Wednesday Service

March 6, 7pm in the Sanctuary

We begin our journey into the season of Lent filled with wellsprings of hope on Ash Wednesday. Experience an evening of interactive, hands-on spiritual practice stations, including the dispensation of ashes, developed and led by our Confirmation class. All ages welcome!

Homes for All Forum

March 10, 11:15am in the Art Gallery

So, come learn about the issues and the proposed solutions.

Homeless Day on the Hill

March 13, 8am in the Parking Lot

We will journey to the State Capitol as a faith community to influence the shaping of laws that affect persons experiencing homelessness. After Advocacy training, at 10am, we will travel to the State Capitol to meet with legislators.
