PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of Grace: we admit that we turn to you partly out of need, partly out of habit, partly out of trust. We know you to be our Creator, who maintains order; our Redeemer, who loves us more than we love ourselves, and our Guide, who leads us toward life and joy. But we are so self-sufficient, we do not easily exchange our ways for yours.

We wrestle with our need to manage you and make you in our own image. We struggle to accept the gift of grace that pours freely from your heart.

Have mercy on us.

Even now, we believe enough to know that your goodness does not depend on our trust.

So, we ask you to meet our honest fear with faithfulness that draws us closer to the reality of your love.

We ask you to be our God, yet again...

SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Children of God, may the courage to accept the gift of grace be your key to receiving God's unconditional love. God's arms and heart are open to us. We are forgiven.

Thanks be to God, who calls us and hears us, who renews our faith and places us on a firm foundation. Amen
