

How was your day?

I love you.

I know you do.

SURVEY SAYS!

Use these survey questions to create some special dialogue between children and their special adults! This is a great way to encourage kids to think about their parents and all of the other special adults in their lives. Especially fun to archive their answers to look back at them when they're older!

1. What is something this person always says to you?

2. What makes this person happy?

3. How does this person make you laugh?

4. How old is this person?

5. What is this person's favorite thing to do?

6. What does this person do when you're not around?

7. If this person were a character in a book, movie or TV show, who would this person be?

8. What is this person really good at?

9. What does this person do for their job?

10. What is this person's favorite food?

11. What makes you proud of this person?

12. What do you and this person do together?

13. How do you know this person loves you?

14. Where is this person's favorite place to go?

15. What do you like the best about this person?

CONVERSATION STARTERS

Use these conversation starters to help your kids learn more about the special grown ups in their lives. Great for dinner table conversation, zoom calls with grandparents, or facetime with crazy aunts and uncles!

1. What's one of your favorite memories from when you were my age?
2. What's the most trouble you've ever gotten in?
3. What's something you always wanted to do but didn't – and why didn't you?
4. Growing up, what did you think you wanted to do for a living?
5. Who were/are your role models? Who did you look up to when you were younger? Who do you look up to now?
6. What's the best trip you've ever taken?
7. Who was your best friend growing up? Who is your best friend now?
8. What was the day I was born (or adopted) like?
9. What's your favorite photo of yourself? Of our family?
10. What do you want or wish most for your kids?
11. What was life like for you at my age?
12. Describe your perfect day.