

WHERE'S WESLEY?

Follow the clues to find the busts of John Wesley, founder of Methodism, scattered throughout the building! Take photos as you go and tag us on Facebook @hennepinavenueumc or Instagram @hennepinaveumc. If you need a little help, flip this page over to see where Wesley is hiding.

1. The game begins next to a quote that is considered one of his most famous sayings near the entryway of this building. Where am I?
2. You would come here to find the real words of John Wesley- Here I sit high above the fray. Where am I?
3. From the beginning John Wesley and the Methodists empowered women, find our “modern” take on the women of Christianity! The light shines through all people, including these women of faith, Where am I?
4. Where the young people at? This space, once a full gym with basketball hoops, is set aside for youth. I started thinking up methodism with 3 buddies at college, now I sit where you can do the same. Where am I?
5. This space is filled with mentors and role models that are often unsung- they teach driven young people from all over Minneapolis. I sit under a table of role models -it's Element-ary. Where am I?
6. I traveled hither and yon, up and down, to provide access to my teachings to the most people! Where am I?
7. This room was built to house some treasures from Europe. I sit gazing at the beauty of a well placed turkey remembering my time in America and my travels. Where am I?

BONUS: This John Wesley came to us all the way from Iowa because he wanted to see what was going on at Doors Open! Say hi to our lovely reception staff and volunteers, they love this place.
